

ENOUGH BLOOD SHED

101 Solutions to Violence, Terror and War

Mary-Wynne Ashford with Guy Dauncey

Enough Blood Shed is a striking testament to the power of creativity, compassion and non-violence in a world awash with weapons and hopelessness. Its stories demonstrate that the long held dream of a world without war and violence is both justified and realistic.

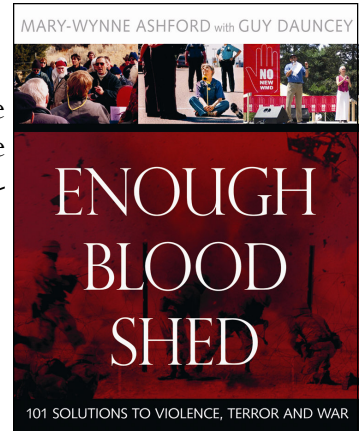

Part One of the book describes the culture of violence that has led the world to the precipice of despair and points to signs that a different future is possible when the power of civil society becomes engaged. Part Two focuses on the multitude of solutions that are already being practiced at every level:

- Solutions for individuals, including women, children and youth
- Solutions for schools, educators, activist groups and religious organizations
- Solutions for the media, professionals, business and labor
- Solutions for cities, nations and the global community

Packed with stories of effective non-violent success, Enough Blood Shed demonstrates the power of ordinary people to make a difference, providing the guidance, and hope that permanent global peace is possible.

Mary-Wynne Ashford is Past President of International Physicians for Prevention of Nuclear War which won the 1985 Nobel Peace Prize. She has been a leader in the international peace and disarmament movement for over twenty years. She is also the recipient of the Arch Award 2006 for Distinguished Alumni from the University of Calgary. Guy Dauncey is an activist and visionary, and author of several previous books including Stormy Weather: 101 Solutions to Global Climate Change. This book is part of The Solutions Project.
